

Peninsula Waves Baseball Player Evaluation
Sunday June 5th
@ Palos Verdes High School
Practice Baseball Field - A

The Peninsula Waves will be playing as a Y12 Baseball Club this coming year and are looking for a few local baseball players to add to the roster. The Waves will be conducting a player evaluation this Sunday June 5th, 11 AM- 1:00 PM.

The Waves are a traveling baseball team with players ranging from 10-12 years old. To qualify, your player must be age 11 on May 1, 2011. Many of the players will be turning 12 before the end of the year. The monthly fees are approximately $150-$165/month. Local tournaments and Pony participation is included in monthly fees. Uniforms and tournaments outside of Southern California are additional.

The current team includes players from the following leagues:

Lunada Bay: Matt Miller (12)

Silver Spur: Dean Porter (11), Michael Fuhrman (10)

Palos Verdes: Jacob King (12), Brendon Walsh (11), Kevin Crump (11), Erik Anderson (10), Jake Dunbar (10)

Rolling Hills: Chandler Tansavadi (11)

North Torrance: Nick De Rusha (11)

Torrance TABB: Mathew Meskin (11)

The Waves compete in tournaments around Southern California. The team plays in the Manhattan Beach Pony League, finishing 2nd in 2009 and 1st in 2010. Last year the team played tournaments in San Diego, Orange County, Santa Maria, and Palm Springs. The team will be competing in the Y12 AA Division.

The Waves are looking to fill the roster with 5-6 additional players. To be considered for selection to the team you must be a "baseball first" player.

The team is coached and run by Marc Meskin (310) 877-0605 mmeskin@dtson.com
Please contact Marc directly with any questions you may have regarding this player evaluation or future consideration for the team.

Fun Waves Fact

Marc Meskin's older son Jacob, was on the original Peninsula Waves in the late 90's. Many former Waves players have played Division 1 baseball and a few are in pro ball. Jacob Meskin won a CIF Baseball Championship at Palos Verdes High and now plays with fellow former Waves player Bryce Ortega at the University of Arizona. Matt Grace, former Waves player and UCLA pitcher was recently drafted by the Nationals.