

Mark Mainini's Summer Baseball Clinics - Ages 8 -12

Mark Mainini, former professional, has coached and taught baseball for sixteen years. He develops players and prepares them for the next level with an upbeat attitude and positive reinforcement. Participants will work on all aspects of the game; throwing, hitting, fielding, pitching, catching - from the fundamentals to the finer points of the game. Coach Mainini's goal is to have the players learn, improve and build confidence while enjoying the great game of baseball.

Players will benefit from the use of "RightView Pro", a state of the art video analysis system. They will study synchronized swings of themselves alongside the most successful hitters in the game including Joe Mauer, Alex Rodriguez, Torii Hunter, Chase Utley, Manny Ramirez and many more. Video analysis allows them to see what they are doing verses what they need to do. Players can visually define exactly what the best hitters in the game ALL do.
